

THE 2021 SCHOLARLY & RESEARCH COMMUNICATION & CANADIAN ASSOCIATION OF LEARNED JOURNALS 3RD ANNUAL

JOURNAL INNOVATION AWARD

Both member and non-member journals of the Canadian Association of Learned Journals are eligible. Non-members must pay an entry fee of $200. Entries will be judged by a panel of 3 judges with extensive journal publishing experience. The winner will be announced at the CALJ Annual General Meeting.

This award is intended to recognize innovation made or first measured in 2019 or 2020 by a Canadian scholarly journal that has published at least 12 articles and can provide usage statistics. Innovation should be focused on enhancing readership and/or other forms of engagement with journal content.

DEADLINE
APRIL 30, 2021

How to apply

- Include a concise description of the innovation with accompanying materials or access information
- Describe the intended or actual impact including measurement techniques

Eligibility

To qualify, a journal must:

- Be located and published in Canada by a Canadian entity
- Have a majority of Canadians on the active editorial board

For more information or to enter:

Canadian Association of Learned Journals
P.O. Box 20304, Ottawa, ON, K1N 1A3
Email: award-prix@calj-acrs.ca
613-859-2993

Scholarly and Research
Communication